What is Wingly?

Wingly is Europe's leading flight sharing platform. We bring private pilots and passengers together, and enable them to share both the magic of flight and the costs incurred.

Who are we looking for?

- Native speaker of German, and a full professional proficiency in English. (French or other languages is a plus)
- Bachelor or Master of Business, preferably in communications and marketing
- Strong interest in the start-up world
- Highly motivated, and autonomous team player
- Knowledge of the Adobe Creative Suite: Photoshop, InDesign
- Having a passion for aviation or holding a Private Pilot Licence is a plus.

About the job:

- Communication management and Wingly marketing
- Social media channels (content creation, user engagement, blog, etc)
- Direct contact with the founders
- Growth of the German market in collaboration with the German country manager
- Business development and strategic decision making and execution
- Customer support and CRM
